Flag Day Luncheon & Speaker—Jack Woodville London

Let's celebrate the birthday of our precious American Flag on Monday, June 15, 12-2 pm with a special WBCO luncheon and author Jack Woodville London. Jack wrote the first book "Virginia's War: Tierra, Texas 1944" of his World War II historical fiction trilogy, "French Letters". London traveled extensively and developed an avid interest in history and has had articles published in several professional journals.

Jack will bring copies of his book for purchase and signing. Don't miss this special event as we pay tribute to our American Flag.

July 4th Parade at Frontier Days—July 4

Check out the Baca Center float as we celebrate July 4th in the Frontier Days Parade down Main Street. You can ride on the Fun Bus, walk with the float or just come watch the parade. If you are interested in helping us prepare the float, please give the Baca Center a call. Look for the Baca Site Council members riding on this year's float. If you would like to ride the Fun Bus you can sign up at the front desk. Don't forget to wear your patriotic outfit. Course #13484

New Employees

Please help us welcome Donna Bethke and Robert Ray to the Baca staff. Donna and Robert are our new evening recreation leaders. Donna was a Program Specialist with the State of Texas for 30 years. She is now living in Round Rock and enjoying family and friends. Robert retired from the Army and is now pursuing a career as an EMT/firefighter.

Un Baile Tejano

Un dia de semana

In the afternoon

A group of senior citizens

Dance to lively tunes.

The music is Mexican

Tejano if you will

Mostly fast and loud

The ladies can't sit still.

There's more ladies than men

And some of us are gringos

Trying to keep up

Tho' we don't speak the lingo.

No matter, it's the beat

That makes the happy feet

Come on all you vatos

Put on your zapatos!

By Eugene Faires

(written for the Tejano Dance Group)

Baca's World Traveler

Do you travel with the Baca Center? Sign up to get your travel passport and be sure to get your passport stamped each trip you take with the Baca Center. The person that has taken the most Baca trips and gotten their passport stamped by the end of November will win a prize at the December 2nd Travel Club Meeting.

Baca Cuisine Critics

La Cocina
602 McNeil Road
512-716-1703

The Baca Center Cuisine Critics recently ventured out to La Cocina Restaurant. Evaluation forms indicated that all Baca Critics were delighted with the atmosphere, service, and food. They had their own special green sauce that was fiery and delicious. Some noted that the menu could be a bit more descriptive and that one dish, the Chili Relleno, while delicious, would have benefited from more spices. Nevertheless, the Baca Cuisine Critics gave highest or next to highest grades in all categories and there was unanimous agreement that they would recommend this restaurant to others. La Cocina is owned by its chef, Ismael Diaz, who provides a selection of reasonably priced both Mexican and Italian dishes. The restaurant is open Mondays from 11 am-9 pm; Tuesdays through Saturdays from 8 am to 9 pm; and Sunday from 8 am to 2 pm.

Gino's Italian Restaurant
1701 South Mays St.
512-218-9922

The Baca Center Cuisine Critics gave the highest marks to Gino's for their great Italian-American food and ambiance. The group received a personal visit by Gino's daughter to discuss their menu options and daily specials. The group agreed that the value was great for the money. Many of the group frequent the restaurant for lunch and dinner on a regular basis.

The restaurant opened in Round Rock in 1993 by Gino and his family. Gino prepares the sauce every morning with the freshest ingredients to ensure his sauce is perfect. Gino's nephew Emanuele makes the dough and bread fresh daily. The Minardi family welcomes you to enjoy their proud heritage Monday-Saturday 11 am-3 pm and 5-10 pm. Check out their web specials at: www.ginosroundrock.net.

Trips, Trips, Trips

If you like to see new things, museums, plays, movies, restaurants, parks, concerts then you'll want to travel with the Baca Center.

ALL trips in the newsletter will be available for registration on the first business day of the newsletter month (i.e. May/June newsletter is May 1, July/Aug. newsletter is July 1, etc.). Payment is due at time of registration. Members may register one additional person per trip at time of registration. Non-member guests please add $5 to the cost of each trip. Times and events are subject to change. Return time is an estimated time of return, it depends on traffic, event wrap up, and any travel delays. Day trippers should check in with the bus driver for exact departure and arrival times. If a member has a medical condition and must pre-board on the bus, a doctor's note must be on file with the staff. ALL participants MUST have an emergency medical form on file prior to each trip. Parking for an extended or overnight trip is on the lower level of the parking garage.

Participants in wheelchairs that are unable to use the restroom or participate on their own will need to bring along a companion and all fees apply. You will also need to tell the Baca staff of your condition when you register so proper arrangements can be made for use of the lift.

DON'T FORGET YOUR BACA PASSPORT!

Trips, Trips, and more Trips!

OYO = On Your Own Please Check in with the driver before each trip. Payment is required at time of sign up.
